Dear Mr. Gallina:

I am writing on behalf of Evelyn Turner, your client for whom your team worked diligently on her lawsuit and trial. I wish to extend many thanks to your legal department from the law clerks to you Mr. Gallina.

In the beginning Mr. Englesher worked very hard on my mom's case and ushered her through the deposition. We are forever grateful for his expertise, sensitivity and commitment to excellence.

Once the trial was officially set, we had the pleasure to meet Mr. Kenny and Mr. Sosa. They provided their talents at my mom's trial.

We were in awe at Mr. Kenny's professionalism and law acumen in providing a strong case on my mom's behalf. We could not have won her case without his experience and knowledge. He has shown us that he is a seasoned attorney and capable of handling a trial especially with a difficult bunch of defense attorneys as we had in her trial.

Mr. Sosa was "right on" at the trial. He had the records in order and provided Mr. Kenny with documents at ease. He was asset on my mom's case.

Both Mr. Sosa and Mr. Kenny kept in constant touch with us throughout the trial. They provided us with easy access to them at any time day or night to discuss particulars about the trial. Mr. Sosa even went out of his way to chauffeur us home on those long days during the trial.

We are so grateful for your firm's commitment to my mom's case with all the hard work and sacrifice poured into the case. We were impressed with the trial exhibits that were used during the trial and I was especially happy with the witnesses they called. It was evident that they did their homework over the past eight years before the trial. They were very prepared and astute with cross-examination and the decisions made during the trial proved in favor for my mom.

I am so pleased with your law firm and will recommend your firm to friends and family.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Turner-McGill and Evelyn
